

Farmer's Market Bag
Instructor: Pattie Kelley Fuller

Supply List

*Summer is just around the corner!
Just in time for your farmers market shopping!*

Workshop Description:

You're going to have so much fun creating market bags using Derwent Inktense pencils - you can do amazing things with them! These pencils come in a wide variety of colors, in blocks and in paint sets. They are like a colored watercolor pencil, BUT when you add water, they become permanent ink. You will find plenty of things to create with these pencils!

You'll settle on a bag design, get a light pencil sketch on the bag and then simply color it in. When satisfied with the coloring, we'll use a paintbrush or two and brush or dab water over the color. It dries quickly and it becomes permanent ink, so no smears or running.

Not looking for a farmer's market themed bag? Bring along your own idea and create a bag to suit your own personal tastes. Questions? Send an email to patriciakelleyfuller@gmail.com. View more of Pattie's work at her website: www.PattieKelleyFuller.com
